Imagine to host annual Disability Film Festival

Imagine Supported Living Services will host its 7th annual Disability Film Festival at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 12, at the Colligan Theater at the Tannery Arts Center.

The film festival aims to empower people with disabilities and raise awareness about those who live in the community. Each film is either directed by, starring, or about people with disabilities.

Each year, the film festival brings people with disabilities into the center of the event, which will boast black tablecloths, a live band, and handmade and served hors d'oeuvres. There will also be a raffle, movie snacks and alcoholic beverages.

Tickets are $20. The Colligan Theater is at 1010 River St. For details, visit imaginesls.org.

'Red' runs through Oct. 21 at Actor's Theater in Santa Cruz

Martin Sampad Kachuck and Robert Gerbode play artist Mark Rothko and his assistant Ken in John Logan's Tony Award winning play "Red" being staged by director Wilma Marcus Chandler at Actor's Theater in Santa Cruz. The play is an account of Rothko's crisis of conscience over a massive commission in the late 1950's and is a portrait of an artist's ambition and vulnerability. "Red" premiered in London then moved to Broadway in 2009, winning the 2010 Drama Desk as well as six Tony Awards. "Red" plays Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through October 21 at Actor's theater at 1001 Center Street in Santa Cruz. For more information: www.sccat.org.
